

Imparja

What is it about?

Staying in the present.

Ralph, Snoopy, Kodi (...or your own dog) will insist it.

A time and place to let your past and future thoughts go.

Learn new things about animal behaviour;

Opportunity to look at the sky, the view;

Feel the wind, sun, rain, the ground under your feet and the temperature on your skin;

Create or listen to music;

Enjoy the moment!

What you have to do?

Commit to six walks with or without your dog.

Where?

Various locations (within 60 minutes of Sydney CBD).

How to get there?

Pick up from Central Station 6.15am

Or meet us at the venue.

What to wear?

Clothes you don't mind getting dirty (preferably with pockets).

Closed in shoes.

What to bring?

Just You. If you would like a sibling, friend or a different dog to join us, call or email Dayna dayna@dogcamp.com.au

0468 590 635

